American Legion Will Purge El Paso Of Bolshevism, Says Post Secretary; Ex-Service Men Adopt Resolutions

THE El Paso post of the American Legion will purge the city not only of bolshevism, but of all bolshevist propaganda as far as possible. Her. F. M. Johnson, Jr., secretary of the post announced Saturday. The resolution adopted by the Legion Friday night gives the president, J. M. Folger, authority to name a standing committee of five to do this work.

As soon as the committee is named, Mr. Johnson said, it will conduct an investigation of the membership of the Legion. Every member found to have made bolshevist utterances will be tried before a public meeting of the Legion.

In addition to purging the membership the Legion proposes to examine the books in the public library and ask that any radical literature shall be taken from the shelves. Suppression of all other radical literature will be demanded wherever it is found.

Permitted To Serve Legion.
Mr. Johnson said that the house of bishops of the Protestant Episcopal church had endorsed the American Legion and that although a curate of the church was prohibited by the rules from accepting a salary elsewhere than in the church an exception had been made in his case by the bishop of the diocese because of the patriotic nature of his position as secretary of the Legion.

A letter was received by the local Legion Saturday from R. W. Emerson, Washington, D. C., assistant director of the war risk bureau, in which full cooperation in the case of men who contracted tuberculosis during the war was assured. The letter said that attention had been called to certain cases of neglect by an article in The Herald. The names of the men neglected were asked for and will be forwarded to the bureau at once, Mr. Johnson said.

Letter Goes On Record.
More than 400 members of the El Paso post met on record Friday night at 10 p. m. When the adoption of a resolution condemning this element in which it pledged "to suppress with all the forces at our command any attempt whatsoever to impair, hinder, overthrow or destroy these principles for which we fought."

The resolution followed a stirring appeal to the members by former anxiety by her husband, Capt. Anthony Steane, resulted in a verdict of suicide while mentally unbalanced.
